Death of William Spohn Baker.

As we go to press, the sudden death of MR. WILLIAM SPOHN BAKER, on Wednesday morning, September 8, 1897, is announced. He was elected a member of the Historical Society of Pennsylvania April 28, 1873, and for many years has served as one of the Vice-Presidents and a member of the Council.

MR. BAKER was widely known through his researches in all that pertained to the life and character of Washington, and his last contribution, "Washington after the Revolution," is concluded in the present number of the PENNSYLVANIA MAGAZINE, to which he was an esteemed and frequent contributor.
